

FINTECHS AND TRADE UNIONS WORKSHOP

Tuesday 16 February
10.00 - 12.00 (CET)
ZOOM

Organised as part of the EU-funded project How Fintech affects the financial sector and what the effects are on collective bargaining in the European financial sector

AGENDA

- Welcome address
- Fintech Action plan and the role for regulation in the Fintech space
Peter Kerstens, Adviser on Technical Innovation and Cybersecurity, DG FISMA
- Job opportunities and labour relations in the Fintech sector
Louise Grabo, Secretary General, Swedish Fintech Association
- Presentation of the research approach and preliminary results of the project
Bertil Rolandsson, Senior Lecturer, Gothenburg University
Department of Sociology and Work Science
& Bengt Larsson, Professor of Sociology, Gothenburg University Faculty of Social Sciences
- Presentation of the Estonian Fintech scene and reflections on national labour relations
Jaan Masso, Programme manager, University of Tartu Faculty of Economics and Business Administration
- Q&A Session
- Panel discussion about working in the Fintech sector and the role of trade unions in this new setting
Michael Budolfson, President, UNI Europa Finance
Jens Thau, Chairman of EBF-BCESA
Gilles Gravier, Director and Senior Advisor on Open Source and Blockchain Strategy at Wipro and Co- Founder of Why! Open Computing SA
- Conclusions

This project is co-funded by the European Union

